

One World, Many Faiths

- engaging with global spirituality

Sikhism Indigenous faiths
A weekend exploring ...
Humanism
Leeds Christianity
Judaism
18-19 July 2009 Buddhism
Hinduism Islam
Nihilism New Age

Plus optional Saturday evening 18.00-21.00
'Conversion, Conversation'
a simple meal with a discussion with people who have converted to another faith
Open to non-weekend participants
Contributions towards the cost of the meal

This One World, Many Faiths weekend looks at the following:

Foundations

- fears and questions; culture and worldviews

Common Ground

- shared values between faiths

Belief, Belonging & Participating

- as understood in Judaism and African Indigenous faith

Peace & Conflict

- as understood in Hinduism, Islam and Sikhism

Power & Authority

- as understood in Humanism, New Age and Nihilism

Salvation & Destiny

- as understood in Buddhism and Christianity

Uniqueness of Jesus

- exploring the claims of the New Testament

Venturing Out

- discussion, debate and dialogue

Workshop

... because faith is a journey

This weekend is part of the Workshop Christian learning programme, designed to inspire your spiritual journey. It involves 12-weekends spread over a two-year cycle.

www.workshop.org.uk

Inclusive Christian learning in today's diverse world

Workshop is an initiative of Anvil Trust - Charity Reg. No. 1010354

PRICE

£50*

£30* for students and unwaged

TIME

09.00-17.00 both days

18.00-21.00 Saturday evening (optional)

* Price includes teaching, group work, handouts, refreshments and activities plus full notes available online after the weekend. Please bring your own packed lunch.

FOR BOOKING OR MORE

INFORMATION:

CALL 0114 288 8816

POST Workshop, 104 Townend Lane, Deepcar, Sheffield, S36 2TS

VISIT www.workshop.org.uk

EMAIL admin@anvil.org.uk

VENUE & DATES

LEEDS - 18-19 JULY 2009

Potternewton Centre,

Potternewton View,

Leeds,

LS7 2DW

ANVIL
TRUST